MISS ADA I. SNYDER, R.N.

HISTORY

On the first Thursday night in September, 1900, Dr. Julius A. Mood gave a lecture on Osteology to a group of five young women who wished to become nurses.

The hospital in which they worked was known as the Mood Infirmary; it later was changed to the Sumter Hospital, and in 1914 became the Tuomey Hospital. In 1913 the school was organized as the Tuomey Hospital School of Nursing, and the first graduate was Anna Grider, now Mrs. F. H. Tift.

The first director of the Tuomey Hospital School of Nursing was Miss Hofsett. Miss Mary Ellen Heinrich from Pennsylvania came in 1915 and was director until 1925. Miss Mamie McAllister followed Miss Heinrich; and May 6, 1930, Miss Ada I. Snyder from the Allentown Hospital, Allentown, Pennsylvania, became Director of Nursing. Miss Snyder is the present Director, and it is to her, in grateful acknowledgment of her unceasing efforts to promote nursing in the Tuomey Hospital and the State of South Carolina, that this booklet is dedicated.

THE NEILL O'DONNELL MEMORIAL RESIDENCE FOR NURSES

THE TUOMEY HOSPITAL SCHOOL OF NURSING

"We come in to learn;
We go out to serve"

The Tuomey Hospital School of Nursing aims to offer a sound basic program in nursing education, to prepare good bedside nurses, and to develop in them a consciousness of their part in the community. The school is non-sectarian, but attendance at the church of one's choice is encouraged.

The Tuomey Hospital is a general hospital, fully approved by the American College of Surgeons, The American Hospital Association, and the school is approved by the South Carolina State Board of Nurse Examiners. The School also meets the requirements of the Army and Navy Nurse Corps, and the American Red Cross Nursing Service.

To study Nursing is to make one of the best possible preparations for successful living. Nurses make fine wives and good mothers. Their training prepares them to become prominent as leaders in their communities.

Classes are admitted to the Tuomey Hospital School of Nursing in September and March. Any one interested should write the Director of Nurses, Tuomey Hospital, Sumter, SC.
